Fireflies Take Wing

*The moon begins to rise above the mountain's brow in the glimmering evening moonlight
glowing dimly*

Please join Monterey Bay Zen Center, Elliot Ruchowitz-Roberts, poet, and students of Katherine Thanas, at Earthbound Farm Stand for a delicious, breakfast prepared by the Earthbound Farm's organic kitchen.

Elliot will share his poems reflecting themes from Miscellaneous Poem at a Grass Hermitage, a poem by Eihei Dogen, founder of the Soto Zen school of Buddhism. Katherine's students will read similarly themed excerpts from The Truth of This Life, her recently published book.
