

THE WILLOW TREE CANNOT BE BROKEN

7/7/2018

The Family Style of Soto Zen

The Willow Tree Cannot Be Broken, a series of classes exploring the spirit, practice and teachings of Soto Zen, begins Saturday, July 7th at the Carl Cherry Center for the Arts. Through meditation, talks and discussion, the classes will investigate the core teachings, themes and practice of Dogen Zenji and the Soto Zen school. Sponsored by the Monterey Bay Zen Center, the series is intended to make Dogen's writings and practice accessible to students, including those not familiar with Zen or Buddhism in general.

The classes will be taught by Robert Reese, a Soto Zen priest in the lineage of Suzuki Roshi and members of the Monterey Bay Zen Center teaching council.

Fee: $10 suggested donation per class; 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon . Additional classes will be held August 11th, September 8th, October 13th and November 10th The Carl Cherry Center for the Arts, 4th and Guadalupe, Carmel, Information: (831) 920-8303.
